Teachers & Sport in Schools

IFAC as a part of your CPD

IFAC for Teachers & Schools

IFAC 2011 represents an excellent CPD opportunity for teachers involved in sport in schools with a number of practical workshops and seminars addressing coaching young athletes. Of particular interest to you will be Vern Gambetta and Kelvin Gilles, who will be leading practical sessions which can be applied to a variety of sports and are fundamental to the development of young athletes. Additionally, there are a number of coaching clinics and practical workshops covering various disciplines in athletics.

The Scottish Schools Athletics Association (SSAA) will deliver a "On Your Marks" practical workshop for their classroom resource, followed by "foundations for the developing athlete: a school's perspective" - a practical workshop jointly hosted by Kelvin Giles and SSAA. You may also be interested in our disability workshop entitled "coaching athletes with a disability - successful interventions"

You design your IFAC programme, so you and your school can make the most of the conference!
